Over 10,000 volunteer members befriend those who are lonely or in need - they visit them in their homes, in hospital and in care homes on a regular basis.

I would like to embrace the whole world in a network of charity. Blessed Frederic Ozanam.

COFFEE MORNING: The Justice and Peace group is holding a Coffee Morning next Sunday after 10.30am Mass. There will be stalls, including Traidcraft and a Bookstall for Friends of the Holy Land. Please bring books, DVDs, jigsaws (good condition, please) on the day or leave in baptistry. Contact Peter Ryan 625 5158.

THE FOOD COLLECTION next weekend will be for Asylum Link.

At a recent J and P meeting the group decided to observe the Season of Creation by responding to the Pope's call in 'Laudato Si' to make shopping a moral act. So, in the next few weeks there will be some pointers you might like to consider when you next go to the supermarket or greengrocer.
'Consider the carbon footprint of what you buy.'

Today is Home Mission Sunday – in today's Gospel Jesus challenges the disciples with the question, "Who do you say I am?" and today we pray for the spread of the gospel. www.homemission.org.uk

Adoremus: about 10,000 people attended this in Liverpool last weekend. The organisers thank everyone who attended over the 3 days. Highlights can be seen at www.shalomworldtv.org/videos/index/2590

SVP Meeting tomorrow in the Parish Room at 6pm.

Missio Collection boxes – thank you to John Scott who has been the parish organiser for Missio for some years. He has emptied the boxes and held fund raising events including his popular plant sales. John is now moving out of the parish and Margaret Bourne has kindly agreed to be the new organiser.

Thank You
